Agency Agreement Guidelines

The purpose of the relationship between Kids Up Front and Agency is to enhance the program work of our agency partners by facilitating opportunities for members of their organizations up to and including 18 years of age.

Kids Up Front will:

- Seek out, create and/or solicit funds for Opportunities and provide them to Qualified Agencies for distribution to Qualified Recipients, and work with Qualified Agencies to provide a fair distribution of Opportunities.
- For Canada Revenue Agency purposes, Kids Up Front must report ticket values as gifts to qualified donors i.e. Qualified Agencies that are registered as charitable organizations with the CRA.
- Not fund additional costs associated with Opportunities but will notify Agency of such costs, if known.
- Coordinate and meet with Agency representatives, as necessary, to strengthen the relationship with Agency, to meet Qualified Recipients' needs, and to outline the goals of the Kids Up Front programs.
- Communicate with Agency to review the Agreement and conduct audits on Opportunity use.
- On the approval of the donor, offer Opportunities to the staff or volunteers of Qualified Agencies for personal use.
- Communicate with donors to strengthen relationships and provide acknowledgements from recipients.

Agency will:

- Coordinate the selection and distribution of Opportunities and necessary transportation and chaperones.
- Encourage open communication with recipients to enable successful attendance.
- Inform the recipient in a clear and timely fashion:
 - regarding restrictions on the use and disposition of Opportunities and consequences of non-compliance;
 - that illegal consumption of drug and alcohol use is not permitted prior to, during or immediately following an Opportunity;
 - that any tickets or passes for Opportunities that will not be used by the recipient must be returned immediately prior to the event;

one little ticket... one big lift!

- the value of the Opportunities and that the selection of the recipient means others were unable to attend;
- the value of acknowledgements or “thank you” messages;
- that Kids Up Front coordinated the Opportunity for the purpose of providing them with a personal, positive experience;
- Follow up with recipients immediately following the Opportunity, ascertain whether the recipient attended or had any concerns, and encourage and collect acknowledgements. The acknowledgements will preferably be addressed to the donors, including those listed as “Friends of Kids Up Front”, and will be mailed in c/o Kids Up Front, and will indicate the name of the event and date.
- If the recipients were unable to use the tickets, contact Kids Up Front immediately to provide explanation. (Donors often sit beside the seats they have donated and will call with their concern.) Kids Up Front’s policy dictates a proactive approach to minimize the risk of losing future tickets from that donor.
- Coordinate by the stated deadlines any requested consents, waivers and additional information.
- Communicate to Kids Up Front any issues that may arise that could jeopardize the intended outcomes, e.g. Opportunities were not used, recipient was injured, entertainment was inappropriate, recipients were not well received or recipients demonstrated unacceptable behaviour.
- Return any tickets (even last minute) that the agency will not use. (Others may be on a waiting list.) Note: Kids Up Front’s offices are not open on the weekend.
